

A researcher is observing a child running back and forth in a hallway. The velocity - time graph for the child is drawn below. Find the average speed of the child during the time from 0 s to 9 s.

A researcher is observing a child running back and forth in a hallway. The velocity - time graph for the child is drawn below. At what time does the child return to her starting point?

